Good afternoon

We are honoured by the presence of the Prime Minister of the Republic of Namibia, Dr Saara Kuugongelwa Amadhila and High Commissioner Nghiwete this afternoon at this charity golf prize giving ceremony in favour of CEDEM. CEDEM is an amazing organisation which provides comfort, hope, love and support to these children who have been victims of different forms of abuse and neglect.

To-day's tournament is a clear demonstration how the wonderful sport of golf, can contribute towards improving the quality of life of those in need.

The proceeds of today's event will enhance the quality of education, nutrition, physical activity and comfort of 30 child beneficiaries in residential care of CEDEM.

I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to each one of you – sponsors, donors, golfers for your support and generosity in bringing joy and happiness in the life of these children and also assisting me to progress through my charity golf journey. Let's continue on building the bond of goodness and solidarity through cooperation and together let's fulfil our duty of cherishing every human life and putting a smile on each face.

Before I end, congratulations to all golfers who took part in the tournament today. You have not only supported me, but more importantly the children of CEDEM.

Thank you for being with us this afternoon. I wish you Bon Appetit! Enjoy your meal and the nice music of the Mauritius Police Pop Group.
